This cohort program will serve persons seeking a K-12 principalship certificate and/or masters degree. It is open to those who have a K-12 teaching certificate, and otherwise qualify for admission to graduate studies at SIUC. It is a 39 semester hour program that will be delivered in two calendar years at SIUC.

Why a Cohort?

Research indicates that students who study educational administration in a cohort learn more, enjoy their studies more, and are more likely to complete their degrees and credential work. They develop a sense of unity, enjoy team support, and build networks of personal and professional relationships that last beyond the end of their course work.

Application Deadline Friday, February 22, 2008.

Cohort Model:

Each year a select group of 15-20 students will be admitted as a cohort. Students will take all courses together, providing collaboration and teambuilding opportunities.

Degree and Certification Earned:

Students completing the cohort will earn both a M.S.Ed. in Educational Administration as well as the Type 75 (Principalship Certification).

Length of Cohort:

The program is 39 credit hours and will be completed in two calendar years (including summers).

Faculty:

Courses will be delivered by SIUC faculty and adjunct faculty.

Location:

All courses will be taught on the Carbondale campus or via the Internet.

When:

There will be two courses each semester -- one course taught during the week, and a second course on Saturdays (will meet on five Saturdays each semester).

The department will start a new cohort each summer. New students will only be accepted at the start of each new cohort.

Non-Thesis Requirement:

Students will not be required to write a master's thesis, but will take a second research course (EAHE 547 - Evaluating Educational Research).
